

421—7.3(17A) Applicability. This chapter applies only to waivers of those administrative rules that are within the exclusive rule-making authority of the department. This chapter shall not apply to rules that merely define the meaning of a statute, or other provisions of law or precedent, if the department does not possess statutory authority to bind a court, to any extent, with its definition.

[ARC 6101C, IAB 12/29/21, effective 2/2/22]